A BRIEF REPORT.

THE ALBERT BARROW ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION 2012-2013

The Albert Barrow Essay Writing Competition 2012-2013, provided students of the Senior school with a wonderful opportunity to showcase their creative talent. It was held on 18th June, 2012, in the senior school library. A total of thirty students participated in this interesting contest. The topics for the composition was disclosed by our Headmaster, Mr. Ferdinand Bunyan in the Senior School Library.

The participating students had to make a choice from among the following topics:

1. CHANGES IN THE INDIAN FAMILY
2. OUT WITH THE OLD AND IN WITH THE NEW.....THE WORLD NEEDS CHANGE NOW
3. THE FASCINATION THAT COMES WITH CHANGE.
4. THE INCIDENT WHICH CHANGED YOUR BELIEF IN SOMETHING WHICH YOU CONSIDERED IMPORTANT

All competitors were given a period of 1 hour after selection of the topic of their choice and frame ideas on it. During this period, students were allowed to refer to a variety of books, newspapers and magazines in our school library.

Thereafter, the students were given 2 hours to compose, pen down their essays (approximately 1600 words) and submit the final draft.

The winners will be awarded prize money and certificates after being judged on their writing skills and creative expressions by the ICSE Council Of examinations.

It was truly an enriching experience for all students. We sincerely thank our C.E.O Mr Frank Freese, our Headmaster Mr F. Bunyan and all other staff members for providing us with such a wonderful platform to express ourselves.
