A BRIEF REPORT

The Junior School Elocution was held in the auditorium in the third week of July. It is one of the first competitions held in the academic year. It is an event which involves the entire class as a team. The children practice the poem daily laying emphasis on correct pronunciation, diction and presentation, as elocution means 'The art of reciting clearly'. As Bishopites our turn out is always delightful and is a tough challenge for the judges. The children enthralled the audience and their teachers by giving off their best with funny poems. Poems like 'Rainbow Fairies', 'You are old father William', 'Halloween Disco', 'How do Wars begin?', 'My Dog has Good Manners', 'My Parents are pretending' were recited. The confidence of the elocutionists reflected the guidance and effort put in by the teachers and students respectively and clearly shows the high standards set by the school.
