A BRIEF REPORT

With every passing year the bar is set higher during the Inter-house Extemporatory Speech Competition. This year was no exception as all the contestants were confident, clear and well prepared. After collecting their topics from the Headmaster, the contestants were given an hour to prepare their speeches in the library. All the topics were interesting and had made headlines recently thus adding flavour to the competition. The judges for the morning were our Headmaster - Mr. H. Soggee, Supervisor - Mrs. M. Fernandes and Assistant to the Headmaster - Mr. C. Gaynor. It was a pleasure to hear all the participants and it was difficult for the judges to decide the outright winner. O'Connor House won the competition and Saransh Sinha of the same house was adjudged the best speaker.
