A BRIEF REPORT.

The All-India Frank Anthony Memorial Inter-School Debate organized by the ICSE Council was proudly hosted by our school was on the 29th of June, 2012. A total of nine schools were invited to participate in 'Category 2' comprising of students from classes 9 and 10.

The nine schools that were part of the pool were;

1. Pawar Public School, Mumbai.
2. Ryan International School, Nerul - Mumbai.
3. Vidya Valley School, Pune
4. AryaVidyaMandir, Bandra (W) - Mumbai.
5. AryaVidyaMandir, Bandra (E) - Mumbai.
6. Hutchings High School, Pune
7. St Mary's High School, Pune
8. Podar International, Pune
9. The Bishop's School, Pune.

This is an ex-tempore debate and the topic was sent from the ICSE Council of Examinations in a sealed envelope which was opened in the library at 9:30 AM. After this the participants were given one hour for preparation. The topic for this year's debate was;

'ARE CHANGING FAMILY VALUES LEADING INDIAN SOCIETY TO INEVITABLE RUIN?'

Each team had one speaker 'FOR' and one 'AGAINST' THE MOTION.

The esteemed panel of Judges comprised of---

1. MsNikhilaDeo—Head, Times Newspaper In education.
2. Mr Sanjay Dey; Director, ICS International Education Services
3. Mr. Deepak Dalal: A prolific writer and author of several books for children.

At 10:30 am the panel of Judges accompanied by our Headmaster, Mr F. Bunyan, came up to the hall along with the participants, all of whom were brimming with enthusiasm to commence the debate.

This was followed by two hours of interesting, heated arguments as the teams put forth their views convincingly and confidently.

It was a closely contested event and finally the results were declared amidst much anticipation, bated breaths and pounding hearts.

The results of the event were as follows,

BEST TEAM: VIDYA VALLEY SCHOOL, PUNE

FIRST RUNNER UP TEAM: ST MARY'S SCHOOL PUNE.

BEST SPEAKER: ShrutiGonda, VIDYA VALLEY SCHOOL, PUNE

First Runner up speaker DevashishGokhale, ST MARY'S SCHOOL, PUNE

All the winners were awarded certificates. They were given very valuable advice by the judges. After this enriching experience, all the visiting teams along with the staff accompanying them ,were cordially invited to lunch in our Junior School library.

It was indeed a memorable event, one that we will treasure for a long time to come.
