A BRIEF REPORT

A test was conducted and three boys per house who qualified were finalized. This competition was held in the B.W. Roberts Hall at 11:30 am. There were a total of 9 rounds some of which were - current affairs, sports, rapid fire, entertainment, mixed bag etc. The most interesting was the audio-visual round.

There was also an audience round and all the questions were keenly answered. The Arnould house participants were declared the winners of the quiz, closely followed by the Bishop's house.

The following boys were chosen to represent their Houses-:
