A BRIEF REPORT.

Mrs. Valerie Freese, our Headmistress, is someone who has devoted years of hard work and dedication to the field of education. She was instrumental in laying the foundations of our school and has watched it grow into what it is today. Her consistent support and undying encouragement gives us what we need to shine and succeed. So, it's no surprise that she has won such a lot of respect and recognition for her extraordinary efforts.

This year, on the occasion of Women's Day, Mrs. Freese was honoured with the Human Achiever's Award for her exemplary work. She was felicitated with cards flowers and a befitting tribute in the form of a very appropriate hymn, "O LORD, MY GOD", sung by Joanna Sam, This morning. She received all the cards and bouquets with tremendous grace and humility. It's true that we are all blessed to have someone like her to look up to as a role model.

Thank you Ma'am, for your selfless efforts!
We are very proud of you.
