A BRIEF REPORT

The 67th Independence Day of our Nation was celebrated at The Bishop's Co-Ed School – Undri.

Our Chief Guest Mr.J.Edwin – Headmaster of The Bishop's School – Camp arrived on the dot at 8.00 a.m. He inspected the "Guard of Honour". A bouquet was then presented to him. The flag party then presented the School flags and House flags which were placed behind the dais.

The essence of Independence Day was presented in brief by the Head boy Dhruv Vagani. Simran Saggi recited the poem written by Sir Rabindranath Tagore – "Where the Mind is without Fear" thereafter Ms. Ayushree Jain delivered a speech in Hindi and finally a patriotic poem in Marathi by Ms. Sanjana Pawar.

Our Chief Guest hoisted the National Flag. The National Anthem was sung and Tricolour ballons were released.

Mr.J.Edwin then delivered his message on this special day to our young children telling them to remember the Martyrs who laid down their lives in the struggle for Independence. We are truly blessed to be born in the New Era he said, hence we should strive towards Solidarity, Integrity and Unity with a positive attitude so as to bind our Nation in togetherness for a prosperous, progressive tomorrow.

The School Choir sang a Marathi Patriotic song " JHENDA AMCHYA PRIYA DESHACHA" it was a soul stirring rendition.

The function concluded with a vote of thanks to all the members of the staff from 2nd / 3rd Language Departments, the Art Department, the Music Department, the Estate-in-charge, Parents and Children.

It was, as always, a well planned and meticulously conducted function.

Jai Hind !
