A BRIEF REPORT	:

Report on the Inter-House Singing Competition 2013 - 2014

Music, which has now become the soul of Bishop's Undri, in its harmony, is bringing out the many characteristics of the musical-ethics which is absolutely evident.

Unlike the past, The Bishop's Co- Ed School, Undri has once again raised the bar high by putting up an outstanding Inter-House Singing Competition. The Music Department has significantly evolved, thus shaping itself to create interests and activity amongst the students. It has produced fine Choir's and Soloists over the years, this was obvious in the Inter House Singing competition of the 25th October 2013 - 2014.

It was the most awaited day for every House Master and Teacher who put every effort into this yearly event with a hope of outshining each other and performances of the past. Students love this extra - curricular activity which moulds their inbuilt musical talent. Which expands their tastes and interests, along with their academic demands.

The Competition was divided into four categories:

- Test Piece
- Junior Group Song
- Senior Group Song
- Solo/ Duet/ Trio

From the four categories, The Test Piece was “Wonderful Words of Life”

Music was in the air throughout the evening, it was fascinating to witness all the four Houses put up quite a magnificent performance and each one was outstanding and kept the audience enthralled.

“Any Dream Will Do”- An Instrumental Piece was put up by the Music Staff and Students for the Grand finale.

At the close of the event our CEO & Hon.Sec, Mr.F.Freese requested for a recap of “Daddy” by Pussycat.

The overall result was as follows:

1st Wintle & Rae

3rd Young

4th O’Connor

Best costume prize: Wintle House

The trophies were awarded to the winners by our CEO & Hon.Sec.Mr.F.Freese.

The musical evening concluded with the Vote of Thanks by the Head Girl, Simran Saggu, appreciating the efforts put in by the staff and the students in making the event a grand success.
