THE J.N. PETIT INTERSCHOOL DEBATE

The J.N.Petit Interschool Debate was held on 13th July,2013. Eighteen schools from in and around Pune participated in this annual event. The topic for this year's debate , 'Indian Cinema Entertains and Educates 'was indeed a very interesting and debatable topic.

Saad Modak and Ayushmaan Chopra were selected to represent our school. The former spoke for and the latter against the topic respectively. The boys were trained under the guidance of Mrs. Pooja Ghosh.

Emphasis was laid upon intonation and the voice modulation. With rigorous training, the boys excelled in their oration.

On the final day,the debaters were accompanied by six students, who are a part of the Debate Club.

The event was organized in a grand style wherein each participant was given a warm welcome. One could sense the nervousness as well as the eagerness among the students.

Our boys spoke with confidence, poise and style. The eminent judges were not only impressed but also appreciated their power of oration.

The Bishop's School, Camp was awarded with the Rolling Trophy while Saad Modak was adjudged the Second Best Speaker.He was also awarded for the Best Rebuttal question.

It was a very proud moment as the boys held the Trophy. Once again we can say that in Bishop's-'Perfection comes only with practice'.
