A BRIEF REPORT.

On the 11th of November, 2011, our school celebrated the National Education Day, to commemorate the birth anniversary of our first education minister and great freedom fighter, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad. We had a special assembly in which the Headmaster read out the Prime Minister, Dr Manmohan Singh's message to all students of the nation, to be motivated learners and recognize the power of education as a magical tool for transformation of lives and careers.

The celebrations carried forth through as the Speaker's Corner invited students from all classes to come and express their views on the topic: 'WHAT DO I EXPECT FROM TODAY'S EDUCATION'.

All the students spoke very convincingly and were given an attentive hearing by the student congregation. The teachers too expressed their views on the valuable contribution of the Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, in the formation of the University Grants commission.

Thus the celebration for the National Education Day concluded on a successful note, as all the students and the members of the staff bodies were enlightened regarding the importance of education and the relevance of their work in the society as students and teachers.
