On the occasion of the 64th Republic Day, our school was decorated with tricolor flags, balloons and Rangoli. This gave the school a festive look. The students, parents and the staff gathered on the field to celebrate the national festival.

Our chief guest for the day was Mr. Ferdinand Bunyan, Headmaster of the Bishop's Co-Ed School, Kalyaninagar. The programme commenced with the welcome of the Chief Guest by Mr. Christopher Gaynor, the reading "Where the minds is without fear" was read by our Head boy Akash Nagarkar and prayer by Head Girls Darlene Mascarenhas.

Our Chief Guest was escorted by the Supervisor, Mrs. M. Fernandes to unfurl the flag, which was followed by the National Anthem and pledge.

A speech by Simran Saggu, followed by a poem in Hindi by Simran Rakesh. The Chief Guest delivered a message for the day reminding us about our duties and responsibilities as citizens. The student's choir sang the patriotic song, "Hum Honge Kamyab", which sounded very melodious. Little children wore costumes of the different states of the country, depicting a sense of "Unity in Diversity"

At the end of the programme, refreshments were served to all present. Children enjoyed their refreshments and snacks, and then went home with their parents and guardians.
