'COMEDY IN THE SEMINARY' – A REPORT ON THE ANNUAL CONCERT, 2013.

'Humour is the sunshine of the mind', is an oft-quoted statement. This very sentiment echoed in this year's Annual Concert, entitled 'Comedy in the Seminary'.

The play was staged on August 2nd, 2013, in the New Hall of the B. W. Roberts' Building by The Bishop's Senior School and Junior College. It was based on the film 'Sister Act 2: Back in the Habit'. Most of the songs had original lyrics set to popular tunes.

The lead character was effortlessly played with brilliant comic timing by Parvez Patel. The rib-tickling humour came to the fore with the antics of the three nuns played by Zaphya Jena, Parichehr Marker and Neha Diwakar. The enactment of all the characters was so natural and unblemished, leaving the audience pining for more.

The backbone of the action on stage was the choir which was an integral part of the play. The songs were rendered in the most mellifluous voices which blended together in perfect harmony. This huge, daunting task of making the children sing such difficult numbers with precision, clarity and harmony was ably handed by Ms. Rachel Thomas. The vibrant and energetic dances were performed to foot-tapping music which left the audience bobbing in their seats. The innovative dance moves, stunts and coordination of the sequences were choreographed by Mrs. Pooja Ghosh and Ms. Sonia Chainani.

The splendor of the backdrops brought the entire set alive as the Art Department led by Mrs. Snehal Vaity out-did itself.

The entire production, or should I say, 'Labour of love', was painstakingly scripted and directed by Mrs. Gulnar Mistry.

Its resounding success would not have been possible without the consistent support of our dear Headmaster Mr. Joel Edwin and our ever encouraging Principal Mr. Frank Freese.

As all good things must come to an end, this mega event went off smoothly without any glitches, technical or otherwise, with pleasant memories of a most memorable evening.

Mrs. Gulnar Y. Mistry.
