A BRIEF REPORT

The annual overnight camp of the Scouts and Guides was organized by the Bishop's Co-Ed School, Undri in collaboration with "TANTA OUTDOORS" It was an opportunity for the students to be one with nature, explore new places and have a fun filled adventure at a camping site in tents and surrounded by jungle .The students came in close contact with rural life and receive first hand experience of living in tents.

1st Feb, Friday – After a wonderful journey with an atmosphere of song and the scenic beauty of Mahabaleshwar, we reached the venue at 9:00 p.m. The students had dinner and were in for a surprise as a live music show which was put up by the organizers as well as the Scouts & Guides .The students retired to bed at 1.30 am.

2nd – Feb, Saturday – was a day packed with various fun filled activities and games. The most interesting ones being Rifle Shooting, River Crossing and a Treasure Hunt. A visit to the strawberry farm was another exciting activity. A Drawing Competition was organized; the theme “My Dream” The Camp fire was the highlight of the day with each group putting up a skit and “Ad World”. The day ended with the night trek as all the students climbed the hill top using their torch lights and then experienced a fascinating view of the stars studded night sky.

3rd – Feb, Sunday – It was a memorable day, the students were taken to the “On Wheels Adventure Park” where they enjoyed the different rides and had a lovely time. In the afternoon an hour was given to them for shopping at the Mapro Garden. The students returned to school by 7:00 p.m. It was an exciting and adventurous overnight camp.
